Dr. Olson says: "Concerning The Language of God, it is available as a download through www.audible.com. The cost is $15.00 and it can be downloaded to any iPod, mp3 player, or computer. Since the cost is about the same as the cost of the print book, I don't see any reason to scan the print book. If there are visually impaired students in the class, it seems reasonable to me that they would purchase the audiobook, just as the sighted students purchase the print book. I have listened to the audiobook, and find that it is very well done, and it is unabridged."
