

READING LIST for J-Term 2026

Updated: 11/24/25

The main purpose of this list is to give students an idea of textbook costs associated with course work.

Please see course syllabi for text confirmation and additional information.

Courses are arranged by division, then course number. Download the file to search by course number or faculty name (CTRL +F should open a search box). The list includes Required and Recommended books for this term.

The list indicates when only selections from a title, but not the entire book, is required.

Library staff work to provide access to all required, recommended, and suggested readings in print and online.

Lists include the book's ISBN (International Standard Book Number), which will help you find the correct edition wherever you search and buy books. Please double-check all information including author, title, and format.

Note: If purchasing, you can purchase from the vendor of your choice.

Thank you.
