

Wartburg 2018-2019 Academic Calendar (Revised)

NOTE: The Spring Semester schedule is now updated below, different than previously published, as there is a change with the addition of Easter Monday (April 22) also being a recess day, but done so with the understanding that the Easter Monday course schedule will instead be taught on the Friday (April 12) before the Palm Sunday weekend. There are also changes with the spring semester drop/add deadlines, and differences in how the Prolog Week schedule is also described. Finally, there will no longer be summer offerings of the Greek language courses (as the Greek language course will now be taught in the fall semester), so their schedule is also removed for Summer 2019.

Contact the Wartburg Theological Seminary Registrar's Office if you have questions.
