Sermon Response Form

The Lutheran tradition places great stress on the preaching of the gospel. Congregational members tend to pay close attention to preaching as a key element in pastoral performance. The seminary is eager for interns to receive constructive evaluation of their preaching. Sermon content, organization, language, and delivery are all important in effectively communicating God’s word.

Preacher: ____________________________________________

Listener: ___________________________ Date: __________

What biblical text was the basis for this sermon?

“In a nutshell” what was the main concern of the sermon (one simple sentence)?

What was the “good news” that you heard?

What feelings or thoughts did the sermon evoke?

Where and/or how did the sermon connect with and speak to your life in the world?

What might have been done differently?